THE MYMENSINGH MURDER. ndizh Police Inspector's Awful Death.

A Calcutta telegram of the 1st inst. furnishes the yfollowing details of the murder at Mymensingh:-Immediately after nightfall vesterday Bankim Chandra Choudri, inspector of police, formerly sub-inspector in charge of Dacca kotwali and well known in connection with Ducen shooting and other political cases, while smoking a hooka and sitting upon a chair at his town residence just west of the railway station compound, was struck by a bomb exploding just in front of him and killing him instantly. Both legs were shattered, numerous pins penetrating into the flesh and causing gashing wounds. A hole made through the left eye penetrating inside. Yellow powder spread almost all over the body and iron nails and pins a stuck in the walls and various places. Immediately after the magistrate and superintendent of police arrived on the spot. Mohindra Chandra Gangooly, a compounder of Dr. Bopin Behari Son, arrested in a street near by and searched by the police. They searched at night the belongings of Mohindra in the 'dispensary, Deceased's son, a student of Dacca college, arrived this morning and the body was removed to the hospital for post mortem. ### CHINESE AND JAPANESE METHADS CONTRASTED.

came to Mymensingh from Dacea a lew

The Special Correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Peking after a month's absence from the Chinese capital returns to find things just the same, only "more so," He contrasts the position with the elegtrical atmosphere of Tokyo.

". It meets the eye everywhere in the 600 mile railway journey from Mukden to Peking. Where the Japanese are firmly established in Korea and Southern Manchuria I observed order, constant progress, and endless betterments. But where the Chinese system begins, even with European assistance, as in the case of the railways, there is to day the same air of slackness as in the Philippines under the Spaniards, making one wonder how long such a regime can last in the immediate proximity of an A greative TACO.

Remarkable, indeed, is the work which the Japanese are doing in Greater Japan, Korea now boasts of 20,000 emigrants, and 4,0:0 more are arriving monthly. Dalny has a Japa ese p pulation of 35,00%, while new enterprises are arising all over the on Po to Arthur lemed territory. The South Manchura Itsilway Company will this year have gross receipts exceeding 20,000,000 yes. The Fust un coal mines, near Mukden, are already putting out two and a half m lligh tone annually, and are still rapidly expandin .. A growing fi es of colliurs carries this coal everywhere. Next month a appoint service of steamers will sail direct from Dalny to Hongkong, and later to Singapore, proving that organisation and persistence can conquer averywhere. Next month, too, Japanese gold yen notes will be put into circulation in Southern Manchoria, leading to great commercial expansion. Already Japanese silver nutes are highly prized, because unities the Chinese notes, they mean what is promised on their face. Success and yet more success fullows Japan; Order and system are making the Manchurian Chinese able to acquire walth and to pursue happiness, while their brethren, elsewhere have been messaced. European residents living wherever the Japanese flag flies today rejudingly admit that the advantages nutbalance the disauvantages.

A Natural Remedy

Time was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and exorcism and magic were invoked to cast it out.

Science has taught us wisdon. spirits exist still. We call them "Disease Germs," and they also must be cast out. Once lodged in the stomach or intestines, fever with its hallucinations, or biliousness with its aches and pains, is the result.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT

is the approved remedy for driving out disease Its action is quick and thorough. clears the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to new life, stimulates the mucous membrane to a healthy action, and cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive tract.

It may be safely taken at any time by young

It is very effective in the early stage of Diarrhæa by removing the irritating cause.

Be prepared for emergencies by ahvays keeping a bottle in the house.

GAMBLING DENS OF CALCUTTA. Night Scenes in China Town Described.

There are few, if any, gambling dens, properly speaking in Calcusta. are no gambling saloons hidden away in-the alloys and bye-lanes of Calcutta where granbling and crime go hand in It is true, The Englishman says, that people gamble in Calcutta as they do in other parts of the world, but gam. bling in Calcutta is not associated with violent crime. The race-course and the eard-table in private clubs or houses satisfy the craving of Calcutta's gamblers.

There hre, however, a few places in the least of it. It is not uncommon to Chinapara, the China town of Calcutta, where nightly large sums of money pass from hand to hand. Situated out of the with a smile. They may be bubbling. beaten brack, amidst a maze of narrow, over with excitements but there is no winding, filthy lanes, those places "are shouting and wild gesticulations." inaccessible to the ordinary citizen. Moreover, the imegrainty as to the methods of the keepers of these gaming people and they gamble to while may houses keeps away many who would otherwise become frequent visitors. These dens, if they can be so called, are easy to find. Every gharrywallah in the city knows them, but if one goes with a preconceived picture of a dismally lit room. filled with epium fumes and simister looking individuals hell is doomed to disappointment. These gaming houses are on a public thoroughfare, they are brilliantly lit and the habitues are not marderers, or even thieves. THE PLAY.

In the present version of "Twelith Night " the drama is divided into two parts. The play opens with the Duke of Illyria lamenting his fate that his beautiful neighbour, the Countess Olivia-with whom he is desperately in love-will have none of him. Another suitor for her hand is Sir Andrew Aguecheek, to whose attentions the Countess also turns a deaf ear. The rest of Part I. is taken up with the humours of the comedy characters residing in Olivia's house, and their determination to play a practical joke upon the puritanical steward Malvolio. We find the Duke still love-sick and inconsolable, and to Viola, still his page, he talks philosophically of love, asking the supposed youth whether he has ever felt the pangs of that disease. The pre-

Viola dares not, of course, unfold her love to her master, and the scene ends by the page being sent to the Countess once more to plead the Duke's cause. For a while the play is again taken up with the comic underplot, the practical ioke, of which we have spoken, being to were acts of the landlord which amounted make the fatuous steward Malvolio beto an occupation of the premises previous lieve that the Countees Olivia is attractto September 31st. In make up, in voice and in all "that make for the proper presentation of the part, Mr. Leefe even excelled his recent performance in "A Pair of Spectacles." Mr. Northcoto was a first-rate Sir Toby, lovable, full of fun and frolic and dreadfully bibulous. He had many boautiful passages to utter and he expressed them in such a manner as to indicate a thorough appreciation of the beauty of the Poet's thoughts and also of how they should be expressed on the stage. Mr. Hay's interpretation of the clown was one of the finest and most finished performances of the evening, and admirably suited amazing versatility. Mr. Hastings instice to the small part he had as Sebastian : Mr. Mass, as Fabian, was also successful; so also was Mr. Bullock as Antonio. In fact. Mr. Bullock's performance was particularly good. All the others performed their repretive parts most admirably, and, as already stated, the performance was in every "respect tremendous success and very highly creditable to all who took part in its production on or off the stage. The decorations and costumes, the stage accessories and the floral effects were each and all admirable and appropriate.

> To-morrow evening the next performance will be given and I heartily recommend all lovers of a beautiful play beautifully pl yed to be present.

GREAT SPEECH AT LADY BANK.

Lospon, "Oct. 26. The Right Hon. Mr. H. H. Asquith addressed air enthusiastic meeting of his constituents at Ladybank last night. The broad outline, he said at the outset, of the Land reform measure announced by Mr. Lloyd George had the hearty approval of his colleagues. The Premier then dealt with the question of Home Rule, as the most important among the ourstanding questions which must first be settled. He emphasised that the Government intonded to make use of the "Parliament Act in order to give Liberal legislation something approaching an equal chance with their opponents. The Government declared in favour of Home Rule when it had an overwhelming majority over all perfies. and the last election was fought with the knowledge that Home Rule would came next to the passing of the Parliament Act. It would have been the grossest breach of public faith to put off this legislation.

Government still believed that, the Bill now stood, the Irish Legislature which "it would bring into existences even if it had a disposis tion which the Government did not believe it could have would not. and could not, have the power to be guilty of acts of oppression against the minority. He pointed cut that the House of Lords did not attempt to modify, amend or improve the Bill. Mr. Asquith paid a tribute to 9 the loyalty and self-sacrifice of the Irish Party in the House of Commons, and added: " C You are often told I am Mr. Redmond's subservient tool (laughter)-just as in Ireland Mr. Redmond is told he is mine. There is just as much truth in the one accusation as in the other, and that is, hone at all. "(Cheers.) The Liberals and Nationalists have neted in co-operation for a common cause a emise in the justice and policy of which we both believe. (Cheers.) The Bill as it left the House of Commons, and as it has: been twice rejected by the House of Lords, has the hearty approval of the whole of the Liberal party in Great Britain and a vast unijority among the Nationalists, and there is abundant evidence that it has the great self-governing Dominions. (Cheers.) In these circumstances, there is, in my opinion, a complete, Constitutional case for proceeding next Session in regard to the Irish Government Bill by applying to it the operation of the Parliament Act. He would be glad to be authoritatively informed that this was no longer the case. There were two obvious reasons why all patriotic men should desire a settlement by consent. Firstly, it was of supreme importance to the future well-being of Ireland that a new system of government should not be started with the apparent triumph of one section-however preponderant its numbers and the apparent humiliation of another. He firmly believed that the ties binding Irishmen were more durable and more effective than their differences. THE MEXICAN SITUATION.

ATTITUDE OF UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY.

LONDON, Oct 26.

The American Government is preparing a Proclamation notifying the Powers that any interference with Mexico will be regarded as unfriendly to the United States. The Government declares that it will only recognise a government founded on law and order.

It is intimated that the two things which prompted the preparation of the Proclamation was the alleged interview with Sir Lionel Carden and the despatch of foreign warships. Apparent ly the Proclamation will not be promulgated until after the elections.

The Koelnische Zeitung, discussing the British recognition of President Huerta, declares that all foreigners in Mexico regard him as the most fit per son to establish order: It is to Germany's interest that the Presidentia question should be solved by the election of a vigorous personality like President Huerta. The Tageblatt Zeitung dengunces America's "dollar politics," and forgetfulness of the fact that Mexico is a sovereign State.

THE RECENT OPIUM CASE.

At the Magistracy on Saturday morning, Mr. Wood gave his decision in the case in which Ivor Gourgey was charged with being deficient in his stock of opium at No. 10 Ice House Street.

Mr. Wood said: Section 20 of the Ordinance 22 of 1909 is intended to mean that raw opium stored in a warehouse under a permit in any person's name shall stay in that warehouse until a permit has been granted to move it elsewhere. The Subsequent reports state that the responsibility for any illicit removal of the of raw opium originally landed in the President Huerta has publicity de- colony has ever been stored in the clared that he will not stand as a candidefendant's name. SUBMARINES V. D.C.L.I. RESERVES.

The e was a large crowd at the Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon, when these unbeaton teams engaged to contest Second Teams-Submarines: Cooke; Dance, Rosson; Granger, Pickavance, Ashby; Harris, Simmonds, Ferns, Batterham, Lyons.

D.C.L.I. Reserves-Fitzgerald; Childs,

Drow; Bartlett, Holmes, Withers; Davis,

Hughes, Dean, Newbold, Buck.

Referee, Mr. Williams. Play opened with the "Dukes" the faster lot. Dean was early on the look out for goals, a fast one from him lying by the A depression is situated between the goal at a great pace. 'It was good for the sailors that Rossen was in such fine form at back as he repulsed the opposing forwards in fine style time and again. Pickavance finally got his forwards on the move and then pretty play by Lyons and Batterham was seed." Simmonds worked into a good position and was about to about when Draw sent play to the other end and a centre by Davis was met by Newbold, he steadied it nicely, right on the penalty line, took deliberate aim and missed. Groans by the "Dukes" supporters. Lyons was a fine forager in the sailors front rank. Beating several opponents he caused Fitzgerald to save and later surprised Childs who was about to clear quite leisurely. Then Sabine Rickmers, Dutch str., 573, B. Y. Dean at the other end was seen charge. ing through "the opposition whom he outpaced, went close up to Cooke and accred with a low shot that the custodian touched on its way to the net. The interval came a little later with the score :--

D.C.L.I. Reserves, I ; Submarines, O.

The Submarines restarted as if they intended to equalise without further delay. This they soon accomplished, Lyons dart-Suisang, British str., 1,776, H. Simpson, ing through the defence and scoring with Singapore via Huihow Oct. 18, General.— a lovely shot. The play was very exciting, Jardine, Matheson & Co., Lo. both teams having plenty of socal support. both teams having plenty of vocal support. Drew and Withers were fine defenders for the "Dukes" but both were hopelessly beaten when Harris was observed a few yards from goal taking careful aim at a vacant part. It seemed minutes while he prepared to shoot and Childs dashed across and prevented a cortain goal, the sailors' supporters meanwhile fuming on the line. Hughes nearly did the trick for the Cornwalls and then another glaring miss has to - be-recorded, and this time the thouses. were the culprits. The inside forwards Invertiyde, British str., 3,241, D. Mans. | had taken the ball neatly between the backs and not more than three yards from goal it merely required touching into goal but all seemed to leave it to the other who proved to be an opposing back and he booted away. Near the finish Batterham. overcame the defence and gave the sailors the lead. A well contested game ended with the Reserves suffering their first defeat. Result:

HONGKONG TIDES.

The tide table give below has been compiled at the Nautical Almanac Office in London from the result of the analysis of observations taken by means of an antomatic tide-recording machine in the Wa-ter Police Basin at Tsim Sha Tsui during the years 1887-8-9..

The zero of the table corresponds with the zero of the sounding in the Admiralty Charts which has been found to be 4 feet 3 inches below mean sea level. To obtain the depth of water on the tide gauge at the Victoria Naval Yard add 3-feet 4 inches, and on the gauge at Lamont-Dock, Aberdeen, add 10 feet 6 inches to the height given in the table. October 28th to November 3rd, 1913 BIOR WATER LOW WATER Hongkong Mess
